11. Plaintiff is the owner of Federal Trademark Registration No. 1,118,679 (for the mark “HYBRICON” in typed letters), as evidenced by the records of the Patent and Trademark Office relating thereto, copy attached hereto as Exhibit E.

12. Plaintiff’s Federal Trademark Registrations are valid and subsisting, incontestable pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1065, and evidence Plaintiff’s exclusive right to use the HYBRICON® trademarks shown therein in commerce throughout the United States.

13. Plaintiff has been known to its customers by the tradename HYBRICON since at least as early as 1977.

14. Plaintiff has been using its HYBRICON® trademarks continuously since February 1977 in connection with the sale of its products, and has expended substantial sums of money in the advertising and promotion of its products under and in connection with its HYBRICON® trademarks over more than two decades.

15. Plaintiff has been using its HYBRICON® trademark in a number of ways customary in the trade, including in displays associated with its goods such as brochures on which it prominently displays the mark in association with images of the goods and information necessary for purchasers to order those goods.

16. Plaintiff has a website accessible on the World Wide Web, with a web address “www.hybricon.com”, and a print of the home page of that website is attached hereto as Exhibit F; as is evident from Exhibit F, Plaintiff prominently displays its HYBRICON® trademark in its web site.

17. Plaintiff’s HYBRICON® trademark is strong, distinctive and famous within the high technology electronics industry.

Defendants' Business and Infringing Use of the "HYBRICON" term.

18. Upon information and belief, Defendants are and have been engaged in the business of designing, manufacturing, and selling snowboards, bindings clothing and other products. Defendants are using the term "Hybricon" as a mark for their products and services in interstate commerce in connection with each of these businesses.

19. Upon information and belief, Defendants are and have been marketing and advertising their products, and prominently using the term "Hybricon" in connection with that activity.

20. Defendants have also constructed at least two web sites accessible on the World Wide Web, with web addresses www.illuminatisnowboards.com and www.ill23.com, and a print of the home page from each web address is attached as Exhibits G and H.

21. Defendants' web sites are highly interactive in that Internet users can purchase Defendants' products directly from Defendant over the Internet. Defendants clearly do business over the Internet. Specifically, the defendants enter into contracts with residents of a foreign jurisdiction, including residents of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, that involve the knowing and repeated transmission of computer files over the Internet.

22. Defendants' web sites intentionally utilizes the term "Hybricon" to promote the retail sale of Defendants' products over the Internet.

23. Defendants also use Plaintiff's HYBRICON® trademark in metatags imbedded in their websites to attract web browsers to their web sites instead of Plaintiff's. When an Internet user enters the term "Hybricon" into the popular Google® Internet search engine, as well as other top search engines, Defendants' websites appears among the first 24 web sites listed.

24. When an Internet user enters the term “Illuminati” into the popular Google® Internet search engine, as well as other top search engines, a number of unsavory and unwholesome websites are listed. These web sites are of the type with which Plaintiff would not chose to associate.

25. On information and belief, Defendants were aware of Plaintiff’s existence, Plaintiff’s prior use of its HYBRICON® trademarks, and Plaintiff’s Federal Trademark Registration Nos. 2,332,693, 2,387,393, 2,259,457, 2,259,451 and 1,118,679 at the time that Defendants adopted and commenced using the term “Hybricon” as a mark for their products and services.

26. Plaintiff has never authorized Defendants use the term “Hybricon” or any other similar thereto term, as a trademark or otherwise in connection with their business.

27. Plaintiff has demanded that Defendants discontinue any further use of the term “Hybricon” as a trademark; and Defendants have deliberately and consciously elected to use and to continue to use the term despite Plaintiff’s demand.

28. Defendants’ continued use of the term “Hybricon” as a trademark threatens to seriously impair Plaintiff’s goodwill and reputation in the eyes of those purchasers in the high technology electronics industry.

29. Defendants’ activities have diluted, blurred and tarnished the distinctiveness of Plaintiff’s trademark, and are likely to continue to dilute, blur and tarnish Plaintiff’s established good will and business reputation represented by such mark.

30. Defendants’ use of the term “Hybricon” is likely to cause confusion, deception, or mistake on the part of purchasers and prospective purchasers of the parties respective products and as to the affiliation or sponsorship of Plaintiff by Defendants and vice versa.

31. On information and belief, Defendants have been unjustly enriched in their profits as a result of this unauthorized use of the term “Hybricon” in their web site metatags and otherwise in association with their business.

COUNT I

(Trademark Dilution Under 15 U.S.C. §1125(c))

32. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the allegations of paragraphs 1-31 above as if fully set forth herein.

33. Plaintiff’s HYBRICON® marks have become famous and distinctive in the high technology electronics industry through Plaintiff’s continuous and exclusive use of that mark in connection with its products and services.

34. Because Plaintiff’s products and services have gained a reputation for superior quality and value, its HYBRICON® marks have gained a high degree of recognition, as well as substantial fame, renown and good will.

35. Defendants’ activities have diluted, blurred and tarnished the distinctiveness of Plaintiff’s trademark, and are likely to continue to dilute, blur and tarnish Plaintiff’s established good will and business reputation represented by such mark.

36. Defendants’ use of the term “Hybricon” has caused and continues to cause irreparable injury to and dilution of the distinctive quality of Plaintiff’s HYBRICON® mark in violation of 15 U.S.C. §1125(c).

37. Plaintiff has suffered irreparable harm to its valuable and famous HYBRICON® marks and continues to be irreparably harmed.

38. Unless enjoined by this Court, Defendants will continue their acts of dilution.

39. As a result, Plaintiff is entitled to damages, costs and other remedies against Defendants.

COUNT II
(Cybersquatting Under 15 U.S.C. §1125(d))

40. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the allegations of paragraphs 1-39 above as if fully set forth herein.

41. Defendants have registered, traffic in and continue to use the domain names "www.illuminatisnowboards.com" and "www.ill23.com".

42. Defendants have used and continue to use HYBRICON® in metatags imbedded in their websites to attract web browsers to their web sites instead of Plaintiff's web site.

43. Defendants' marketing and sales of products through their websites constitutes "trafficking" within the meaning of 15 U.S.C. §1125(d).

44. Defendants' use of the term "Hybricon" in metatags imbedded in their websites is now and continues to be with full knowledge of Plaintiff's HYBRICON® mark and tradename.

45. Defendants are using the term "Hybricon" in metatags imbedded in their websites with a bad faith intent to profit commercially from the use of Plaintiff's marks and tradename.

46. Defendants' use of the term "Hybricon" in metatags imbedded in their websites creates initial interest confusion among consumers who intend to access Plaintiff's website.

47. Defendants' use of the term "Hybricon" in metatags imbedded in their websites was in bad faith with the intent to profit from the confusion or mistake among the public as to the true source, origin, source sponsorship, approval, authorization, or affiliation of Defendants' goods and/or services with Plaintiff's registered marks.

48. Plaintiff has been and will continue to be irreparably harmed by Defendants' use of the term "Hybricon" in metatags imbedded in Defendants' websites unless and until Defendants' continued use of such domain name is enjoined by this Court.

49. As a result, Plaintiff is entitled to damages, costs and other remedies against Defendants.

RELIEF REQUESTED

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays that judgment be entered by this Court providing:
